

Asia

At least 91 killed as clashes rock Bangladesh, indefinite nationwide curfew imposed

Demonstrators shout slogans after they have occupied a street during a protest demanding the stepping down of Bangladeshi Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina, following quota reform protests by students, in Dhaka, Bangladesh, Aug 4, 2024. (PHOTO: see more)

05 Aug 2024 02:19AM (Updated: 05 Aug 2024 11:51AM)

DHAKA: At least 91 people were killed and hundreds injured in clashes in Bangladesh on Sunday (Aug 4), as police fired tear gas and rubber bullets to disperse tens of thousands of protesters calling for Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina to resign.

The government declared an indefinite nationwide curfew starting at 6pm local time on Sunday, the first time it has taken such a step during the current protests that began last month. It also announced a three-day general holiday starting from Monday.

ADVERTISEMENT

The unrest, which has prompted the government to shut down internet services, is Hasina's biggest test in her 20-year regime after she won a fourth straight term in elections that were boycotted by the main opposition Bangladesh Nationalist Party.

Related:

Critics of Hasina, along with human rights groups, have accused her government of using excessive force against protesters, a charge she and her ministers deny.

Demonstrators blocked major highways on Sunday as student protesters launched a non-cooperation program to press for the government's resignation, and violence spread nationwide

Related Topics

Bangladesh

ADVERTISEMENT

Also worth reading

Action star Jackie Chan faints after getting...

Singaporean actress Ann Kok reveals she was not...

Man gets jail for filming wife's niece, editing her...

'Sex slave to my husband': A...

Recommended by Outbrain

Discover the Asia-Exclusive Whisky Blend from Royal Salute

Co-Founder of Google Brain, Andrew Ng, Recommends: 5 Books F... Blinkist: Andrew Ng's Re...

Recommended by Outbrain

...ence press managem...

"Those who are protesting on the streets right now are not students, but terrorists who are out to destabilise the nation," Hasina said after a national security panel meeting, attended by the chiefs of the army, navy, air force, police and other agencies.

ADVERTISEMENT

Discover the Asia-Exclusive Whisky Blend from Royal Salute

Co-Founder of Google Brain, Andrew Ng. Recommends: 5 Books F... Blinkist: Andrew Ng's Re...

A woman sold her ex's ring; the jeweler said, "Don't keep it." https://factsandfun.com/

Driver reveals trick to avoid speeding fines McFlash

ADVERTISEMENT

"I appeal to our countrymen to suppress these terrorists with a strong hand".

Police stations and ruling party offices were targeted as violence rocked the country of 170 million people.

Twelve policemen were beaten to death in the north-western district of Sirajganj, police official Bijoy Bosak said.

At least eight people, including two students and a ruling party leader, were killed and dozens injured amid fierce clashes in several places in the capital, Dhaka, police and witnesses said.

Police carry a wounded police officer during a clash between police, pro-government supporters and protesters after anti-quota protesters were demanding the stepping down of the Bangladeshi Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at the Karwan Bazar...see more

BULLET WOUNDS

Two construction workers were killed on their way to work and 30 injured in the central district of Munsiganj, during a three-way clash of protesters, police and ruling party activists, witnesses said.

ADVERTISEMENT

"They were brought dead to the hospital with bullet wounds," said Abu Hena Mohammad Jamal, the superintendent of the district hospital.

Police said they had not fired any live bullets.

In the northeastern district of Pabna, at least three people were killed and 50 injured during a clash between protesters and activists of Hasina's ruling Awami League party, witnesses said.

League party, witnesses said.

Three people were killed in violence in the northern district of Bogura, and 53 were killed in 12 other districts, hospital officials said.

"An attack on a hospital is unacceptable," said Health Minister Samanta Lal Sen after a group vandalised a medical college hospital and set fire to vehicles, including an ambulance, in Dhaka.

For the second time during the recent protests, the government shut down high-speed internet services, mobile operators said. Social media platforms Facebook and WhatsApp were not available, even via broadband connections.

ADVERTISEMENT

Bangladesh authorities instructed the country's telecoms providers on Sunday to shut down 4G, effectively disabling internet services, according to a confidential government memo seen by Reuters.

Men run past a shopping centre which was set on fire by protesters during a rally against Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina and her government demanding justice for the victims killed in the recent nationwide deadly clashes, in Dhaka, Bangladesh, see more

GOVERNMENT ORDERS

"You are requested to shut down all your 4G services until further notice, only 2G will be effective," said the document issued by the National Telecommunication Monitoring Center, a government intelligence agency.

ADVERTISEMENT

Telecoms companies were previously told their licences would be cancelled if they did not comply with government orders, a person with direct knowledge told Reuters.

The telecom regulatory body did not respond to Reuters' calls.

Last month, at least 150 people were killed and thousands injured in violence touched off by student groups protesting against quotas for government jobs.

The protests paused after the Supreme Court scrapped most quotas, but students returned to the streets in sporadic protests last week, demanding justice for the families of those killed.

"I think the genie is out of the bottle and Hasina may not put it back in the bottle again," said Shakil Ahmed, associate professor for government and politics at Jahangirnagar University.

ADVERTISEMENT

"The prime minister should immediately form a national government to facilitate greater unity".

Chief of Army Staff General Waker-Uz-Zaman on Saturday directed his officers to ensure the security of people's lives, properties, and important state installations under any circumstances, a statement said.

"(The) Bangladesh Army is a symbol of the people's trust. The army is always there and will always be there for the people's interests and for any needs of the state," the statement quoted him as saying.

He also urged officers to remain vigilant about "various rumours" circulating on social media and to execute their duties with honesty, integrity, and justice. Zaman will brief the media on Monday.

WILL HASINA STAY IN POWER?